MEGAN IN MEXICO UPDATE

- seeking & serving God among & alongside those in Tijuana, BC, Mexico -

The past week or so has been difficult. Most of Tijuana was without water for a week. The rain began, bringing with it leaky roofs & mud-filled streets; we had to indefinitely cancel our kids' Sunday school class as our outdoor "classroom" is too wet & cold & dark. My novio Armando's mother died unexpectedly last Friday morning, in the General Hospital without anyone by her side because it wasn't yet time for visiting hours - we found out while in the taxi on our way to see her. Her all-night wake began that evening; the next day was spent traveling 3+ hours to her burial site (the closest available to those without much money) & back. I was awakened at 3:30am on Monday by one of the neighborhood cholos yelling my name because my wall was on fire & my house filled with smoke. Now I have no electricity & cannot stay in nor work from my home. My finances are a bit precarious; my Mexican visa is expired. I've felt at a loss as to where to begin rebuilding & how to go on from here. Please pray for God's strength & power to be evident in the midst of my weakness!

But [God] said to me:
"My grace is sufficient for you,
for my power is made perfect
in your weakness."

Therefore I will boast all the more
gladly about my weaknesses,
so that Christ's power may rest on me.

That is why, for Christ's sake,

I delight
in weakness,
in insults,
in hardships,
in persecutions,
in difficulties.

For when I am weak,
then I am strong...

Yet I will still praise Him...

Thanks be to God for the aforementioned rain that kept my entire (leaky) roof from going up in flames!

in memory of Hna San Juana...
